SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY

taken before the Court, Hon. Hammond Urner and Hon. Arthur D. Willard, March 31, 1934.

MRS. NANNIE M. RENN, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:
(Mr. Storm)

Q Mrs. Renn, you are the beneficiary under the will of your husband in this trust? A. Yes, sir.

Q Do you have any monies in the trust by which these repairs can be made to these farms?

A No, no money outside of this money they are giving me for this place, you see, from the sale of this place.

(The Court)

Q Of course Mrs. Renn went over this with us, and Mr. Troxell, but there wasn't any testimony taken.

Q (Mr. Storm) The farms, Mrs. Renn, are in what state of repair?

A The farm that is sold is the one at New Market, and that money, some of it was to be taken to fix the barn and house out on the home place at Feagaville and then the balance out here at Red Hill right outside of town, because they are both in very bad condition. You see the income -- I really could have done it if I wouldn't have been cut off of all that money from the Frederick County Bank, because the income on that, I would have had sufficient income to have had all repairs and maybe have some besides, but as I say I was cut off from that money and all that interest.

Q The money in the Frederick County Bank represented somewhat over 1300 shares of the capital stock of the Frederick County National Bank?

A 1230 shares of the Frederick County Bank.

Q And when that bank was operating your income from that stock was sufficient to take care of it?

A Sufficient to take care of necessary repairs and everything and
